

Aesop's Fables On Stage – 2nd Grade Program

The 4Cs: Super Skills for the 21st Century

Communication

Students practice listening skills by actively viewing the play and engaging with actors during the in-class preparatory workshops.

Collaboration

Students learn the importance of an audience in a theatrical performance. They experience the collaborative art form of theatre firsthand.

Critical Thinking

Students deduce morals from ancient fables. Students reflect on their own lives and apply these lessons to their own behavior.

Creativity

Students watch classic fables come to life before their eyes. They are exposed to a performance that includes professional sets, props, and costumes.
